

Codes Of Color: Communicating With Quilts

Internet Resources

<http://www.state.in.us/ism/sites/index.htm> Indiana State Museum and Historic Sites

<http://www.state.in.us/ism/sites/levicoffin.html> - Levi Coffin State Historic Site

<http://www.sirinet.net/~ddv/Mr.%20D%20Class/quilts/quilts.html> - Underground Railroad Quilts

<http://quiltmag.com/links/linkstoquilting.html> - Quilts And Quilting; Links To Quilting Sites

<http://ugrr.org/research.htm> - Conducting Underground Railroad Research

<http://www.nationalgeographic.com/railroad/main.html> - The Underground Railroad

<http://www.undergroundrailroad.com/gateway/links.html> - The National Underground Railroad Freedom Center

<http://www.tvq.com/minisoft.htm> - Quilt Design Program Mini-Reviews

<http://www.slavenarratives.com> - The Authoritative Collection Of WPA Slave Narratives On The Web

<http://www.cr.nps.gov/nr/travel/underground/states.htm> - Historic Underground Railroad Sites And Routes Of Escape

<http://www.cr.nps.gov/nr/travel/underground/in1.htm> - Bethel AME Church, Indianapolis, IN – Historic Site Which Harbored Fugitive Slaves En Route To Canada

<http://www.cr.nps.gov/nr/travel/underground/in2.htm> - Levi Coffin House, 115 Main Street, Fountain City, IN – Historic Site Of The “President” Of The Underground Railroad

<http://www.cr.nps.gov/nr/travel/underground/in3.htm> - Eleutherian College, Lancaster, IN – Historic Site Which Harbored Fugitive Slaves En Route From Madison To Indianapolis